

POLICE ACCUSED AS CLUBBERS FOR BATTLE WITH MOB

Crowd Rushes Fire Line in Bronx and Two Arrests
Start a Riot.

The first case Commissioner of Police McKay will have to investigate will be a complaint by a citizen of the Bronx that a lot of his relatives were wantonly and wickedly beaten by the police at a New Year's Eve fire in Claremont avenue.

It was only a small fire but it drew a big crowd from the neighboring tenements and, in a moment following the rescue by the firemen of four of the men from a smoky basement, men and women rushed the police rescuers at the fire line and interrupted the work of the firemen. Then the police used their clubs. They made some arrests. The mob attempted rescue and chaos was again.

Some time ago, No. 128 Brook avenue, went to the Alexander avenue station last night and complained that his son-in-law, Mrs. Annie Sumner, his father, Michael, and his brother, Jacob, had been clubbed and otherwise mistreated. "My relatives were assaulted by police officers," he told the lieutenant. "I made a complaint to Mayor Mitchell the first thing in the morning."

The fire was discovered at 2:30 o'clock in the basement of a one-story building at No. 68 Claremont avenue. Capt. Nathan of No. 4 Engine Company dragged the men from the basement followed by three of his men. They dragged a line of men to the rear and there all collapsed. Firemen and police ran in through the smoke and dragged the four unconscious men to the street. They were revived by Dr. Mashind of Parkland Hospital and sent home.

THE EXCITED CROWD RUSH THROUGH FIRE LINES.

The rescue of the rescue was wrought through the excited crowd that broke through the fire lines which had been formed by the firemen from the fire station and made it impossible for the firemen to work.

Patrolman Silva arrested Frederick Richman of No. 68 Claremont Place and Bernard Rosenthal of No. 68 East One Hundred and Eighty-sixth street. Instantly Silva was attacked from all sides by men and women who attempted to rescue the prisoners. Then the crowd attacked the police and firemen, but Rosenthal and Richman were dragged to the police station.

Patrolman Galloway seized Mrs. Annie Sumner, twenty-one, of No. 38 Broome street, who had been visiting her father-in-law, Michael Sumner, a clock manufacturer, of No. 322 Brook avenue.

Her screams brought her father-in-law and Benjamin Rosenthal, a brother-in-law. Other patrolmen went to the aid of Galloway and overpowered Sumner and Rosenthal, and the riot, which was subsiding, broke out afresh.

TWO WOMEN, FIVE MEN ARE LOCKED UP.

The woman and two men were got to the police station, where Mrs. Sumner was charged with breaking through the fire line. The two men were held on a charge of interfering with the police.

About this time, when the firemen practically had to desert their hose line, Miss Ida Hoover, twenty-two, of No. 3214 Park avenue, was accused by Patrolman Luder of breaking through the line. She was seized and was being taken to the station house, when Frederick Joh of No. 1913 Stebbins avenue ran up and demanded that she be released.

Instantly Joh was arrested, charged with interfering with the police. The rioting continued until the fire was out.

The John Wanamaker Store

Formerly
A. T. Stewart & Co.

The Sale of White--Original

--The Most Original of All

This the fifty-fourth White Sale of the Wanamaker Store, opened today, January 2nd. It contains 55,080 new garments in new fashions, especially made for this store—underclothes, blouses, dresses, baby clothes, besides corsets and household linens: also large special purchases of standard merchandise; prices are ten to fifty per cent less.

The sale of White, Original, will cover the entire Third floor, the entire Linen Store on the First floor, the entire Main aisle, the entire aisle leading from the Subway Entrance to the Old Building, and the regular sections in the Store on the Subway floor have been greatly enlarged.

There will also be shown at this time a trousseau hand-made in Paris for a French Duchesse, and another trousseau fit for a Princess hand-made in our own workrooms for an American woman, the two trousseaux unlike any others ever seen in America.

Today--The Store on the Subway Floor

Presents Its Side of the Sale of White--Original

A Veritable Giant Wave of White extends through the entire Lower-Price Store from the Subway Entrance, New Building, to the Women's Dress Section in the Old Building.

The quality of these new 1914 underclothes, no matter how small the price, is in keeping with the Wanamaker standard. Wanamaker manufacturers are the chief contributors.

Many orders were placed with them back in the dull summer months. Styles of our own selection were submitted. And the manufacturers were given an opportunity to use up their surplus materials and trimmings to advantage.

The following low prices are the result of this co-operation--

Nightgowns, 38c, 50c, 75c, 85c, $1

In this group there are no less than 72 styles, ranging from the simple gown of muslin at 38c to a bewildering choice of 35 styles of nainsook, muslin, cambric or crepe nightgowns at $1.

Combinations, 50c, 75c, 85c, $1, $1.25 and $1.50

From three styles of nainsook combinations at 50c to 27 styles of nainsook or crepe combinations at $1, the same opportunity for wide selection is offered.

Corset Covers, 10c, 15c, 18c, 25c, 38c, 50c

Even at 10c are muslin corset covers that are carefully stitched. And at 50c there are 18 daintily trimmed styles.

Drawers, 15c, 25c, 38c, 50c

Twenty-three styles from a pleated ruffle style at 15c to embroidery or lace-trimmed ones of nainsook or crepe, 50c.

Petticoats, 38c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.25, $1.50

Cambric petticoats with pleated lawn flounce at 38c. At $1 there are 16 variously trimmed styles of cambric or nainsook.

Short Petticoats, 25c and 50c

Ten styles of cambric or nainsook, with pleated lawn ruffle or trimmed with lace and embroidery.

Chemises, 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1

Cambric or nainsook trimmed with lace or embroidery.

Princess Slips, 75c, 85c, $1 and $1.25

Nainsook variously trimmed with lace, embroidery and ribbon.

An Added Feature--

Extra Size Underclothes

Extra size nightgowns, 65c, 75c, 85c and $1
